Numb. 13511. [221]

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday March 16, to Tuesday March 19, 1793.

Whitehall, March 19.

THE following Addreſs has been preſented to the King: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt F .cellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Royal Borough of Queensferry.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of your Borough of Queensferry, humbly approach your Majeſty with our moſt ſincere Thanks for your Royal Meſſage to both Houſes of Parliament; a Meſſage in which your Majeſty has been pleaſed to announce that, in the preſent Emergency of Public Affairs, you have taken every neceſſary Step to maintain the Honour of the Nation and the Rights of a free and loyal People. Although we conſider Peace as the moſt valuable of Bleſſings, as it is the State in which Men would wiſh to live with one another, and as it is the State moſt favourable to the Intereſts of a Commercial Country; yet, when a neighbouring Nation, after having overturned every venerable Principle of ſocial Order within her own Dominions, has been ſeen to act on Views of Aggrandizement, and has already made Aggreſſions hoſtile to the Peace and Safety of Europe; when ſhe has held out the Arm of her Fraternity to ſome of our deluded, diſcontented Countrymen, and has boaſted ſhe would plant the Tree of Liberty in our happy Iſland, where it has long flouriſhed; when ſhe is this Moment invading the Country of our Allies, and has actually iſſued forth a Decree of War againſt ourſelves; in ſuch Circumſtances of Aggreſſion, in ſuch a Seaſon of Danger and Alarm, Peace, we conceive, to be inconſiſtent with Public Safety and National Honour.

In a War to which we are thus irreſiſtibly driven, remembering that we are the Subjects of a King who is the Father of his People and the Citizens of a free State, we will zealouſly ſuſtain the Part of a loyal People; and feeling it to be our Duty, it is our determined Reſolution, to make every vigorous and patriotic Exertion to maintain the Honour of the Britiſh Arms, to ſupport your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, and to preſerve the Purity, Independence and Stability of our glorious Conſtitution.

Signed in our Preſence, and at our Deſire, by our Chief Magiſtrate, at Queensferry, the 5th Day of March, 1793, the Seal of the Borough being alſo hereto affixed.

Alex. M'Nabb.

[Preſented by the Hon. Captain Cochrane.]

Hague, March 15.

It appears, by recent Accounts received here, that 48 Pieces of Cannon were taken at Liege, and very large Magazines of Hay, Corn, and above 40,000 Muskets.

Hague, March 17.

Intelligence is just received here, that the French have raised the Siege of Willemstadt, evacuated Klundert, and ret eated towards Antwerp, after setting Fire to the Village of Moerdyk, and to their own Batteries, and leaving some Cannon behind them.

Whitehall, March 9, 1793.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Saturday the 2d of February last an anonymous threatening Letter, of which the following is a Copy, was delivered to Captain Bird, of Goytrey, in Monmouthshire, for his Wife, by a Person from the Post-Office for Cross Posts, at Ponty Pool:

" Mrs. E. Bird

" By God if you do not lay 50l. beside the mile

" Stone next your House you sertainly will be Rob-

" bed and murdered on the 7th of next Month.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the anonymous threatening Letter abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a farther Encouragement, a Reward of FORTY POUNDS is hereby promised to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is above excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by me

Hen. Bird.

Whitehall, March 9, 1793.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Evening of December the 25th, 1792, about Ten o'Clock, the Meeting House belonging to a Society of Protestant Dissenters, at Guilsborough in the County of Northampton, was discovered to be on Fire, and, in a few Hours, was entirely consumed; and that, from several Circumstances, there is Reason to suspect, that this Fire did not happen from Accident, but that the said Meeting House was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the Meeting House abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually set Fire thereto) who shall discover his or Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And as a farther Encouragement, His Majesty is hereby pleased to promise a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person (except as is before excepted) who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid by the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

STATE LOTTERY.

Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, Feb. 12, 1793.

HIS Majesty's Commissioners for managing the Stamp Duties think it proper, on the near Approach of the Drawing of the Lottery, to give this Publick Notice, that the following Regulations are established by this Office, for preventing ILLEGAL INSURANCE:

1st. Pursuant to a Settlement with the Committee of City Lands, no Person will be admitted at Guildhall to take down the Numbers as they are drawn but the Clerks of the licensed Lottery-Office-Keepers.

2d. The Numbers are to be taken by the said Clerks, not, as before, on separate Slips, but in the Numerical Book of each Office, signed by the respective Office-Keepers, and counter-signed by Two or more of the Commissioners of Stamps.

3d. No Account of any Part of the Drawing in each Day is to be issued, nor any of the Clerks to return with their their Numerical Books, until the final Close of each Day's Drawing.

4th. By a Settlement with Mr. Steele, the Proprietor of the Patent List, the same is not to be published, as heretofore, by Slips, in each Hour, nor by an early Account of the Drawing of each Day, (both of which Communications obviously contributed to the Abuses of illegal Insurance;) but in future only Twice a Week, for the necessary Information of the Publick at large, and at such Hours as the Intelligence can be least perverted for the Abuses of unlicensed Offices, if any such shall remain But the Commissioners trust, that, by these Regulations, and by the published Notices from the Lord Mayor and the Court of Aldermen, as well as from the Chairman and the Magistrates for Westminster and the County of Middlesex; and likewise from the Magistrates of the Police, of a perfect Co-operation with this Office, the only remaining Abuse that has attached on the State Lotteries will be as totally suppressed as the Sale of illegal Chances, which is completely at an End. The insuperable Difficulties that are now opposed to the illegal Transactions, cannot fail to discourage the Continuance of unlicensed Offices; and the Evidence of the Publick, that if any such should be continued, they must proceed without authentick Intelligence of the Drawings, cannot but prevent, to a great Degree, further Confidence being reposed in the illicit Dealers; who, on their Part, by persisting in illegal Attempts, can only expose themselves, for diminished Profits, to the increased Vigilance of the Magistracy in the effectual Maintenance of the Law.

By Order of the Commissioners,
John Brettell, Secretary.
